Chief Kayser read aloud the May 2025 fire report. He stated that on June 16th the fire department was called to assist with a vehicle extrication, which was successful. He also mentioned that the department assisted with a trench rescue on Denison Road.

Mayor Rubino asked about the call status as of now versus last year at this time, to which the Chief said calls are down, but they tend to pick up as the fall time comes.

Trustee Lockart congratulated the Fire Department on the fire parade. The Chief thanked Trustee Lockart and added that they placed 1st in the Mardi Gras parade for funniest, and 1st in the standard parade for uniform dress. He also said that their marching band, CBA also placed first. He said it was nice for the company to be able to have some fun during the Mardi Gras parade.

Trustee Lockart said she attended the protest over the weekend, and the police were present. She said everything went peacefully.

Deputy Mayor Prevratil thanked the fire department for all they do. He also thanked the DPW for all their help with family fun day. He mentioned that we had the first concert last week, which went well.

Mayor Rubino was glad to hear those who attended family fun day had fun. He told the Chief the new Chief’s car looks good.
